Buildings Judged

the Titcher-Goettinger eight-story department store at Elm and St. Paul streets, the Times Herald Building at Pacific and Griffin, the Volk Brothers' five-story department store structure at 1806 Elm and a two-story building occupied by Walgreen's drug store and the French Booterie at Elm and Ervay streets. Remodeling jobs given special mention were the Godissart Perfumers, 113 North Ervay, and the Lerner Shop, 1714 Elm street.

Aionzo H. Gentry and Lang & Witchell were associated on the Dreyfuss building. DeWitt & Washburn designed the W. A. Green store. Herbert M. Greene LaRoche & Dahl the Titcher-Goettinger, Volk and Walgreen-French Booterie buildings. Lang & Witchell the Times Herald Building, Walter Dosterchill the Godissart remodeling and Sam Lerner the Lerner Shop.

Heretofore a silver cup has been awarded for the winning building in the institute's selection, made under auspices of the Retail Merchants' Association. Hereafter, Chairman Thomas D. Broad of the institute committee said, plaques will be awarded to be placed permanently on the building thus distinguished. On the committee with Mr. Broad were Arthur C. Thomas and Ralph Bryan, while the co-operating committee of merchants included W. A. Lotz, George H. Paul and Sam Hargreaves.
