Access Library Databases and E-books Remotely

Current faculty, staff, and registered students at The University of Texas at Austin can access library databases and e-books online from anywhere.

If you are having problems connecting, check out the Off-campus Connection Problems FAQ at http://www.lib.utexas.edu/help/proxy.html.

If you would like to access our databases from your mobile device, view our list of databases and e-journals that provide mobile access at http://www.lib.utexas.edu/indexes/titles.php?mobile=true.

Use Materials from the University of Texas

D-Doc

Registered UT students and faculty traveling or residing outside the Austin area can use the InterLibrary Services D-Doc service to request materials. The D-Doc service can send University of Texas Libraries and borrowed books to you by UPS within the United States, post articles to the Web, and provide pre-paid shipping packaging for returns. More information about this service is provided at www.lib.utexas.edu/services/ils/ddoc_pol.html

You will need to login and update your user information in the online InterLibrary Service request system at http://www.lib.utexas.edu/services/ils/ and change your location status from “On Campus User” to “Distance Learner.” When you return to campus, please switch your location status back to “On Campus User.”

For assistance with D-Doc, call 512-495-4339 (toll free 1-866-895-4250, option 3) or e-mail d-doc@lib.utexas.edu.
