The purpose of the U.S. Latino and Latina World War II Oral History Project is twofold—
(1) to salvage the stories of U.S. Latinos and Latinas of the World War II generation and
(2) to develop a structured audio, video and photographic archive that will be accessible to scholars, journalists, and others interested in learning more about what life was like for U.S. Latinos and Latinas before, during and after World War II. The archives will be housed at the Nettie Lee Benson Latin American Collection and at the UT Center for American History.

We, the undersigned, have read the above and voluntarily offer the University of Texas at Austin and the U.S. Latino and Latina World War II Oral History Project full use of the information contained on the tape recording(s) and transcript(s) of these oral history interviews. We also offer the University of Texas at Austin and the U.S. Latino and Latina World War II Oral History Project full use of any memorabilia and photographs or reproductions of any memorabilia and photographs we have provided the interviewer or other representatives of the University of Texas at Austin’s U.S. Latino and Latina World War II Oral History Project. The tape recording(s) and transcript(s) of these oral history interviews and any memorabilia and/or photographs, or reproductions of the memorabilia and/or photographs will become part of the archives of the University of Texas at Austin and the U.S. Latino and Latina World War II Oral History Project and will be made available to all interested persons for historical and other research. In view of the scholarly value of this research material, we hereby assign rights, title, and interest pertaining to it to the University of Texas at Austin and to the U.S. Latino and Latina World War II Oral History Project.

Name of the Interviewer (printed)                                                                                                        Name of the Interviewee (printed)

Interviewer (signature)                                                                                                                   Interviewee (signature)

Date________________________                                                                                                             Date____________________________